Dear U.S. Missions family,

This year marks 250 years since the founding of our nation. It is a moment worth honoring—not only with gratitude, but with humility. Across generations, God has been faithful to America. We give thanks for the freedoms we enjoy and the sacrifices that were made.

When the Continental Congress convened during the uncertainty of 1774, it opened with prayer—asking for God’s wisdom, unity, and guidance in a time of division and fear. Before a declaration was written, hearts were already turning upward.

This prayer journey invites us to seek the Lord as our only sure foundation, to pray for God to save—to heal hearts, restore families, and draw the lost to Himself—and to prepare ourselves to be sent in faithful obedience wherever God has placed us.

This is a spiritual call.

My prayer is that during this month, God will renew our devotion, align our hearts with His purposes, and prepare His Church to live out the gospel with clarity, compassion, and courage. The gospel is not only proclaimed—it is displayed.

May the gospel be displayed,

Week FOUNDATIONS

(DAYS 1-7)

DAY 1 – GOD, OUR TRUE FOUNDATION

SCRIPTURE: PSALM 11:3

PRAYER: Lord, You alone are our rock and our refuge. Forgive us for building on anything other than Your Word and Your ways. Restore what has been weakened in our hearts, our homes, and our churches. Rebuild us on truth that cannot be moved, and establish us again on You, the sure foundation.

MISSION REFLECTION: The mission field often begins where foundations have cracked—where people are searching for something solid to stand on.

DAY 2 – TRUTH THAT SETS US FREE

SCRIPTURE: JOHN 8:31–32

PRAYER: Jesus, You are the truth. Anchor our lives in Your Word and guard our hearts from deception. Shape our thoughts, our words, and our witness so that truth is not only spoken but lived. Teach us to remain in You, knowing that Your truth alone brings real freedom.

MISSION REFLECTION: Truth must be lived before it can be believed, especially in a world shaped by skepticism and confusion.

DAY 3 – HUMILITY

SCRIPTURE: MICAH 6:8

PRAYER: God, we humble ourselves before You. We confess our need for You. Teach us to walk humbly with You, to love mercy, and to reflect Your heart in how we treat others. May our posture before You shape how we live before the world.

MISSION REFLECTION: Revival does not begin with activity—it begins with humility before God.

DAY 4 – RIGHTEOUSNESS

SCRIPTURE: PROVERBS 14:34

PRAYER: Lord, let righteousness shape our lives and our witness. Form us into people whose lives reflect Your holiness, integrity, and justice. May our obedience bring honor to You and point others toward Your goodness.

MISSION REFLECTION: The gospel advances not only through words, but through lives marked by obedience.

Dear U.S. Missions family,

For the past month, we have prayed for America, our foundations, families and communities, the Church, the lost, the broken, and the searching. Scripture reminds us that prayer is never the end of obedience. Prayer aligns our hearts—and then it sends us.

Across America, the prayers we have prayed are already being answered through people. Through missionaries and chaplains who show up faithfully in real places, among real people— cities and small towns, campuses and communities, neighborhoods and nations within our own borders.

This is the work of U.S. Missions. Some are sent by going. Others are sent by giving. All are part of the mission.

As we step into this mid-year moment, I invite you to prayerfully consider how God may be asking you to participate. Not from pressure—but from obedience. Not as a transaction—but as worship.

In addition to your continued prayers and faithful giving, would you prayerfully consider a special one-time gift of $250 as we celebrate America's 250th birthday—helping us bring the hope of Jesus to every community across our nation. Your generosity helps ensure that missionaries can remain present, faithful, and consistent in the places God has called them.

May the gospel be displayed,

IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776.
Unanimous Declaration of the Thirteen United States of America

When in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such Principles and organizing its Powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and according to all experience, Governments are not to be changed but upon extraordinary Occasions. Whenever the Course of human Affairs has drawn us into a Situation, in which a fair and simple Plan of Government has been found to be inadequate to the Administration of our Affairs, we have repeatedly petitioned for Redress, and have obtained the same. But when a long train of Abuses, and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object, has endeavored to bring us into a Situation, in which a fair and simple Plan of Government has been found to be inadequate to the Administration of our Affairs, we have repeatedly petitioned for Redress, and have obtained the same. But when a long train of Abuses, and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object, has endeavored to bring us into a Situation, in which a fair and simple Plan of Government has been found to be inadequate to the Administration of our Affairs, we have repeatedly petitioned for Redress, and have obtained the same.
